

CASH, CULTURES, AND CLASSICS

Step into the legendary world of JOHNNY CASH with an exclusive tour of his home in Casitas Springs, CA. From 1961 to 1967, this charming mid-century house in the picturesque Ojai Valley served as his sanctuary, inspiring much of his music.

Experience the living room where he entertained friends and family, the music room filled with his cherished instruments and hand-written music, and the kitchen where many family meals were shared with his first wife, Vivian. Visit his private study, a tranquil retreat filled with personal artifacts and photographs, and stroll through the lush backyard where he often found solace under the towering oak trees. Conclude with an interactive exhibit featuring rare recordings, video clips, and immersive displays that celebrate his enduring legacy.

Join us for a journey through the life and times of the Man In Black, offering an intimate and unique glimpse into his personal and creative world. A BBQ lunch will be provided at the home.

Next, is a visit to the Ojai Valley Museum, a cultural and historical institution dedicated to preserving and showcasing the rich heritage of the Ojai Valley. Housed in a historic building that once served as the St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic Church, the museum features diverse exhibits that highlight the area's unique cultural and natural history.

Our last stop is BART'S BOOKS, a renowned outdoor bookstore, known for its unique open-air setting and extensive collection of new, used, and rare books. Established in 1964, it offers a charming, sunlit space that extends inside and outside the store
